The Adairville Times will this week be delivered to Franklin, Ky.

Mr. Geo. W. Gray, the oldest citizen of Russellville, died Wednesday, aged 84 years.

Burke, Idaho, was almost destroyed Wednesday by an avalanche, several people being killed.

Fletcher Stockdale, ex-Governor of Texas, a native of Russellville, Ky., died Wednesday at Cuero, Tex.

Jako Kilrain knocked out Vaquelin, the New Orleans pugilist, in the third round, at New Orleans, Sunday.

F. A. Walton, an express messenger of Dallas, Tex., shipped out this week with $35,000 of the company's money.

Riley, the humorist, claims that he got drunk in Louisville while trying to cure the grippe. Perhaps this is Mr. Riley's latest joke.

The Baptist Book Concern, a big publishing house, has been chartered by the Legislature and will begin business at Louisville with $100,000 capital.

The one hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the Supreme Court of the United States was celebrated at New York Tuesday. Ex-President Cleveland presided.

The Committee on Rules of the House made a report Wednesday. Many changes are made in the rules of the House. Reed is sustained in his autocratic rulings and 100 members are made a quorum instead of a majority of the members as heretofore.

Congressman Jackson has been counted out by the Reed gang, but a Republican Governor in West Virginia and a Lieutenant-Governor in Ohio have also been called upon to do the McGinty act. In both of these cases the Democrats happened to have a quorum of their own.

Mr. Frank Bell, who recently accepted a position with the Louisville Commercial, has returned to Hopkinsville and resumed his former place as city editor of the New Era. The Kentuckian is glad to welcome the return of this capable, cultivated and courteous young journalist.

One of Kentucky's river towns not a hundred miles away is reported to have a social sensation of large proportions, involving one of the most aristocratic families of the place. The lady in the case is a bride of three or four months and late events show that she entered the matrimonial state just in time to save her reputation.

Speaker Reed has continued his high handed proceedings in the House this week. On Monday Jackson, a Democratic member from West Virginia, was expelled by a party vote and Smith, his defeated Republican opponent, seated in his place. On this vote the Republicans, by bringing in their sick members, secured a quorum of their own members.

The House very properly rejected Attorney General Harbin's insulting response to the Langley resolution last Monday. There was hardly a dissenting vote and a well-merited rebuke was given to Gen. Harbin, who undoubtedly made what the French call a faux pas. In plain English he made a very bad break and one that greatly mortified his friends.

The gubernatorial contest in West Virginia was settled Tuesday. The minority report of the committee was adopted and a resolution declaring Fleming, Democrat, legally elected by 210 votes over Goff, was then passed by a vote of forty-three to forty. Gov. Fleming's inauguration was fixed for yesterday at noon, a grand ball to follow at night. The election was held in November 1888 and on the face of the returns, before illegal votes were thrown out, Goff had 110 majority. Pending the contest Gov. Wilson has held over.

SECRETARY TRACY'S WOE.

At 7 o'clock Monday morning the Washington residence of the Secretary of the Navy, Gen. B. F. Tracy, of New York, was discovered to be wrapped in flames. The inmates who were in bed had been overcome in sleep by the smoke and were still in the upper rooms. There were six occupants of the house, three of whom lost their lives. Mrs. Alice Wilmerding, Secretary Tracy's oldest daughter, a widow, and her daughter, aged thirteen years, escaped by jumping from the second-story window. They sustained severe bruises but no bones were broken. The Secretary was dragged from his room unconscious by the firemen and after some hours was restored. Mrs. Tracy fell from the third-story window while ladders were being raised to rescue her and was killed. Miss Mary Tracy, an unmarried daughter, appeared at a window in her night clothes and was overcome by smoke in the sight of those powerless to help from below. When the intrepid firemen reached her after groping through the smoke and flames she was dead and the body badly charred. Josephine Morell, her French maid in the adjoining room, was also burned to death and her remains recovered after the fire had been put out. The whole affair was one of the most horrible ever witnessed in the city and created more excitement than any event since the assassination of President Garfield. The French maid was buried Tuesday by direction of the President. Mrs. and Miss Tracy were buried from the White House Wednesday. Secretary Tracy was able to be present. His only son, F. B. Tracy, a young lawyer of Owego, N. Y., was with the stricken father, the surviving daughter being unable to attend. The Cabinet ministers and other high officials acted as pallbearers.

LEGISLATIVE MATTERS.

Sixty-six more local bills were introduced Tuesday.

The prison investigation will not be resumed until next week.

Mr. Wharton has introduced a bill "to incorporate an institution of learning in or near Cadiz."

The House refused to receive a communication from P. W. Hardin on account of its personal character.

Senator Breckinridge introduced a bill requiring all corporations chartered prior to 1885 to begin business in two years or forfeit their charters.

Judge Lilly is now being investigated and he has pretty well established the fact that it is unhealthy for him to try to hold court in Perry, Letcher and Knott counties.

The House adjourned Wednesday to re-assemble at 10:30 Saturday night, having no power to adjourn for more than three days. At that time less than a quorum can meet and adjourn again till Monday.

Representative Roberts, of Scott, has been taken home, being prostrated with rheumatism. Dr. Mathers, who has also been too ill for business since the session began, has been advised to go South and will not attempt to return to his seat.

When the House met Monday Mr. Langley made a dignified speech defending himself from Gen. Harbin's attack of last week. His address was moderate in tone, altogether respectful and courteous and in striking contrast to the Attorney General's communication. Mr. Langley is a Republican, but the House regarded the personal assault upon him as a discourtesy to the entire body and not as a political or personal quarrel and when he concluded the offensive communication was returned to the author, being rejected by a practically unanimous vote. The House will insist upon a satisfactory answer to the original resolution asking for information about the Attorney General's office.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle.

The Democrats have carried the Fourth Senatorial district in Ohio, in the special election by an increased majority, and retain control of both branches of the Legislature.

The double afflictions of Secretaries Blaine and Tracy call forth expressions of heartfelt sympathy from the whole country. Even Reed and his mob are lost sight of in the general sorrow.

A gentleman in Union county, Mo., who is too modest a man to have his name mentioned in the newspapers, was cured of rheumatism by Chamberlain's Pain Balm, after trying other medicines and treatments for thirteen years. 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Lovell.

A State Sunday School Institute will meet at the Ninth Street Presbyterian church to-morrow at 11 o'clock and continue in session two days. On Sunday night Dr. Gilbert will deliver an address at the Christian church.

County Correspondence.

CROFTON.

Crofton, Ky., Feb. 3.—The Christian County Wheel met here Friday and was in session two days. Among the fine speeches that was made was one by Rev. V. M. Metcalfe, who delivered one on the progress of science.

Eag. Davis was elected President and M. B. Brown Vice President for the ensuing year. All day Saturday was spent in the secret work of the order.

Misses Thosie Ray and Lula Clark, went to Hanson, Ky., yesterday to attend the dedication of the M. E. Church there.

Mr. Reuben Trotter and Miss Charlie Croft were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. E. Croft, last evening at 7:30. The bride is a handsome brunette, blessed with a number of friends. The groom is one of the most popular young men in our country and we congratulate him upon being so successful in winning such a prize, and we wish for them a future as bright as they have ever pictured at any time during their long courtship and that when the death angel shall claim them he may see that their married life has been one dream of love.

Buck.

FAIRVIEW.

Fairview, Ky., Feb. 1.—A delightful party was given at the residence of Mr. J. W. Petree on the evening of the 29th ult., in the shape of a "tacky party," which was highly enjoyed by the young people of Fairview and vicinity. Mr. C. H. Layne carried off the prize as tacky gent and Miss Annie Dulin as the tackiest lady present.

Mr. Franklin Harned and Miss Amanda Brown, of Fairview, were married in Elkton on the 21st, the Rev. T. H. Shaw, officiating.

Mrs. J. C. Terry and children, of Adairville, are visiting the family of J. W. Petree.

Some miscreant threw several bricks into the glass front of Esq. W. B. Brewer's grocery store recently, smashing the glass into smithereens. The Esquire offers $50 reward for any positive information as to who did it.

Miss Dora Hale, of Logan county, is visiting her brother, Mr. E. A. Hale, near here.

Mr. C. G. Layne is ill at his home near here.

Mr. J. J. Moore, of Trigg county, has moved to Fairview to live.

Buckles Bee.

Macedonia.

Macedonia, Jan. 31.—There is a great deal of sickness in this part of the county.

Mrs. W. R. Ely is seriously sick of fever, and Mrs. D. T. Farmer has a hopeless case of typhoid fever and pneumonia.

Mr. Wm. Clifton, little child died near Callin's bridge on last Friday.

The long delayed iron bridge has at last been completed at McKnight's mill, which supplies a need that has been long felt in this section.

Mr. Winslow Irvin and his mother, of Mt. Vernon, Tenn., are visiting relatives in this county, and Mrs. Irvin's brother, Mr. Noah Orten, also arrived from Texas a few days ago and will probably spend the remainder of the winter among relatives and friends in this part.

On Tuesday night of last week our postoffice was burglarized and a registered letter rifled. The letter was from Mr. W. E. Griswell to his mother and was said to contain $5 in currency. The thief entered by a front window which was fastened by an iron bar passing across the shutters, and bolted through each end of the bar and through the wall and fastened on the inside. The bolt at the lower end of the bar was secured by an iron key passing through the end on the inside. The thief turned the bolt until the key dropped out. From the time the robbery was made known the finger of suspicion was pointed at one W. A. Adcox as the guilty party. He had been noticeably conspicuous about the postoffice on mail days and on Tuesday evening he was on hand as usual and seemed to notice the postmaster's every movement while handling the registered letter. He left the office before night and though he only lived a mile away he never got home till late at night and told a crooked tale about stopping with a neighbor. On last Sunday Adcox was seen depositing something in the letter box and the postmaster on opening the box found the money rolled up in a piece of paper. He had evidently got afraid to spend the money for fear of being detected. Adcox is about nineteen years old and married. His parents were both of good families. His father has been dead about two years. He was married about a year ago to a Miss Butler, a girl of about thirteen summers. He had not been arrested at last accounts.

CLAIR.

At the solicitation of many of the fun loving people of Treanton the Peerless Minstrels of this city will give a performance at the hall in this place on Friday night the 28th inst. The program, music, etc., will be rearranged and added to. The show is a good one and those who attend will be highly entertained. It is strictly a moral entertainment and the ladies need have no fear of being offended during any part of the performance.

"Think of something pleasant," said an artist in his photographic gallery yesterday to a refined lady sitting; "think of McGinty at the bottom of the sea."—Philadelphia Record.
